Requirement 8 With your club or family, bake a batch of ANZAC biscuits.

Requirement 9 With your club or family, make an ANZAC Day wreath.

Requirement 10 With your club or your family, attend an ANZAC Day service.

Why is it important for us to commemorate this day each year?
What did you learn by attending that you did not know before?
How did it make you feel to know somebody died so that you can be free?

Requirement 11 In ANZAC services, chaplains often quote John 15:13 and it is engraved in many memorials. This verse is associated with armed service in Australia and New Zealand. Read John 15:12-14. What do you think we can learn about God's love for us by remembering those who served?
