The best way to prevent the growth of evil is to preoccupy the soil. The greatest care and watchfulness is needed in cultivating the mind and sowing therein the precious seeds of Bible truth. The Lord, in His great mercy, has revealed to us in the Scriptures in the rules of holy living... Messages to Young People 282.1

He has inspired holy men to record, for our benefit, instruction concerning the dangers that beset the path, and how to escape them. Those who obey His injunction to search the Scriptures will not be ignorant of these things. Amid the perils of the last days, every member of the church should understand the reasons of his hope and faith—reasons which are not difficult of comprehension. There is enough to occupy the mind, if we would grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.—Christian Temperance and Bible Hygiene.—Messages to Young People 282.2

READ THE ALLEGORY OF THE KING'S GARDEN AND DISCUSS WITH THE CLASS THE MEANING OF ALL THE SYMBOLISM USED. TAKE TIME TO IDENTIFY AND DISCUSS THE FOLLOWING ITEMS IN PARTICULAR: WILL'S NAME, THE GATE, THE MIRROR, THE AXE, THE LANTERN, THE PRINCE'S PROMISE.

The King's Garden

There was once a very wise and noble king, who sorted out from his property a beautiful site for a house, a garden and an orchard. He built the house with his own hands and then put a fence around it and locked the gate with a large padlock.

After looking everywhere in his kingdom for someone to live in this special house he finally settled on a young man called William. However, we will call him "Will" for short. When they arrived together at the house the King said to Will, "Here it is, it's yours to keep. All you have to do is keep it clean and plant the orchard. But make sure you keep the gate locked! Don't let anyone in unless they are members of my family. If you need anything that telephone is a direct line to my castle.

"Call me for anything you want and I'll send it right down without delay"...with that the king was gone.

Will, feeling rather excited about it all, looked over the house and checked out all the rooms; even the kitchen cupboards were full of food. It was late afternoon by the time Will had looked over all the property and already he was deciding on how he would plant the orchard. He was down by the back fence when he heard a muffled voice....

"Don't do it ......Don't do it."

Will scanned the fence line to see where the voice came from, and seeing no one, called out loud "Don't do what?"

"Don't do all that work!" came the reply. Then Will saw a tall dark stranger standing outside the fence just near the gate. Will moved over a little closer and asked the stranger what he meant. "Don't do all that work, that king is nothing more than a tyrant, he'll make you work, work, work and then when the orchard is ready, he'll come down and take all the fruit. The only thing you'll get out of it is a sore back!"

"Oh", said Will, "I didn't think he was like that."

"Oh yes he is", said the stranger. "I've known him for a real long time, but if you let me in—I'll do the work. You can lie down on that bed there on the veranda, you can watch me! In no time I'll have the orchard up—you don't have to do a thing, but you can help me gather the fruit and you can eat as much as you like."

Well, Will was a little soft and he opened the gate to the stranger. And apparently the stranger had spoken the truth—he was a real worker, not a shirker! He knew how to dig; he knew how to raise trees and soon the orchard was there and the fruit was ready to pick. "Come on Will, let's sample the fruit." The fruit looked so inviting as it glistened on the tree and Will could hardly wait to sink his teeth into all the different varieties.

The very first one he tried was absolutely delicious, and the next even better—sort of like a combination mango, pineapple and passion fruit. After he had eaten as much as he could Will lay down on the veranda. The fruit felt like it had gone sour in his stomach. He was sick—real sick—so sick that he thought he would never eat again! But strangely enough an hour or so later Will was hungry again and went back to the orchard for some more fruit. It was just as delicious as the first time, and he couldn't understand why it had made him so sick before. However, it was only minutes after his last mouthful when that same sick feeling came back with a vengeance! Poor Will, he spent the rest of the day picking, eating and being sick; picking, eating and being sick. And that's the way it went the next day and the next week and the next month. Will hated it but he couldn't resist it.

One day he said to the stranger "You'd better tell me the name of this fruit." But the stranger wouldn't tell. It was only after weeks of nagging that the stranger finally led Will down to the orchard and said, "Here... this one I called Impurity, this one is called Lying, this one is Disrespect, this one is Stealing, this one is Hate, Envy, Wrong Thoughts, Cheating", and so the list went on.

Will couldn't believe it and rushed inside past the mirror where he saw for the first time that his face was changing—he was beginning to look like the stranger whereas before he used to look a little bit like the king. Will was so angry that he ran out to the woodshed and grabbed his trusty axe. He was going to chop down every one of those trees even if it killed him. As he picked up the axe all rusty with age, he noticed these words written on the handle.... "GOOD RESOLUTIONS."

With great determination, Will ran out into the orchard and hacked into every tree until the complete orchard was gone. His hands were blistered and bleeding, his back was sore, but he sure felt good knowing all those trees were gone—all except the roots—they were still there!

When Will woke up the next morning and looked out the window, he couldn't believe his eyes. The trees were there just as big as ever before—and so were his blisters! And what's more, Will was hungry and he couldn't resist the fruit. Will was heartbroken—he was so sick and so tired. How he hated the stranger.

One night Will noticed the warm glow of a lantern just outside the gate. He knew it wasn't the stranger because he was inside. From the distance he was standing, he could tell that it wasn't the king but it sure looked like the king, perhaps it was the king's son. As Will moved closer to the gate he could see that something dreadful had happened to the Prince, for the hand that held the lantern had a terrible scar.

And as he examined the scars on his head and face, the prince spoke and said, "Behold, I stand at the door and knock, if any man hear my voice and open the door, I will come in and live with him."

Hardly before the prince had finished, the stranger came running down the path shouting "Don't let him in! He will destroy all my work! Don't let him in!"

Well, that's all Will needed to hear. Without hesitating, Will stepped forward and opened the gate, and as soon as the prince came in, the stranger went out.

The prince wasn't about to waste any time, and quickly led Will down to the orchard and together they went around every tree. Where ever the prince held his lantern the trees just shrivelled up, and the fruit dropped off, and even though the roots were still there the trees never grew back just as long as the prince was there.

The prince explained to Will, "It cannot be as it was with the stranger. This time we must work together." It took longer for this orchard to get planted but the trees were fantastic. And as they planted each one, the prince would say to Will, "This one is Love, and this one over here is Truth, this one Joy, and Peace, Gentleness, Faith, Self-Control, Purity and so the orchard grew.

Will would want you to know that the fruit was delicious and what's more it didn't make him sick . . . not one bit! And his face began to change once more to resemble the face of the king.

However, Will had one dreadful fear that caused a terrible ache in his heart. It worried him so much that he just had to ask the prince. "What would happen to me if you ever went astray? The Prince just smiled and said "Will, I will never leave you or forsake you" and the Prince was true to his word.

Take time to identify and discuss the following items:

1.	Will's name
2.	The gate
3.	The mirror
4.	The axe
5.	The lantern
6.	The prince's promise

Spiritual Growth

Every living thing, whether plant or animal, goes through stages of growing. Nothing is mature at birth. Growth takes time, nourishment, and sometimes much help and care, as with an infant human being, for instance.

Spiritual growth takes place too (1 Peter 2:2, Peter 3:18, Ephesians 4:15). Perhaps we could liken the Christian to a tree which has its roots in good, fertile soil. At every moment the tree is sending out roots to collect its food from the earth. In much the same way the Christian is planted in Christ. He is rooted and grounded in Christ (Ephesians 3:17, Colossians 2:7, Romans 6:5). He fully believes that Christ is his Saviour and that He died for him. He has repented of sin and sought for forgiveness. He believes that he has been forgiven and "transplanted" into new ground and now belongs to Christ.

As he reads God's Word, thinks upon it and prays for God's help and blessings, he not only understands the promises and teachings of God, but applies them to his daily living. He keeps on doing this and as he does, he grows more and more like Christ in character.

He may make many mistakes, and sometimes may commit sin, but if he does, he remembers that Christ loves him still and will forgive his sin if he turns to Christ with repentance and confession (1 John 2:1, 1:9).

No one can grow as a Christian who is planted in the wrong soil. He cannot have his roots in sinful things or be trying to stand in his own strength and succeed as a Christian. He can obtain nourishment only be personal faith in a real and living Saviour and can only stand against the storms of life as his roots are planted firmly in Christ. Faith is like the roots of the tree that hold it securely in the soil, as well as gather food.

God gives the Christian whatever he needs, like forgiveness (1 John 1:9), and new heart (new desires Ezekiel 18:31), a new birth (John 3:3,5), help in time of need, (Hebrews 4:16), power to resist temptation (1 Corinthians 10:13), and the World of God to live by and feed upon (Matthew 4:4). By accepting all these gifts, we grow up into Him.

The Gifts and the Fruit of the Spirit

All this help really comes to the Christian by the Holy Spirit who has a way of teaching and strengthening those who choose to live for Christ. The Holy Spirit also gives other special abilities called "gifts" to various members of the church to help the whole church grow and to produce fruits.

These gifts are mentioned in 1 Corinthians 12 and in Ephesians 4. They help the church not only to grow, but to work for others. They help individual church members to produce what the Bible calls "fruit" in their lives, just like a tree which is planted in good soil will produce good fruit.

Jesus once told His disciple that He was the vine and they were the branches (John 15:5). He said that those who lived by faith in Him would produce much fruit. What is this fruit? How can we know that we are bringing forth good fruit? Listen to the list of fruit that a true, happy Christian life will bare as listed for us in Galatians 5:22,23. Love, joy, peace, long-suffering (patience and tolerance), gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness (teachableness), and temperance.

This kind of fruit can all grow in the life of a Christian who by true faith, surrenders his life in willing, loving, obedience to Christ.

Discussion Helps

BIBLE EMPHASIS ON THE STEWARDSHIP OF TIME

At creation it was God who gave Adam life, and life involves time (Genesis 2:7). All time comes from God, and belongs to Him.

"Strength, time, intellect, are but lent treasures. They belong to God" Education p57.

God controls time as far as a man is concerned.

DISCUSSION:

- Genesis 2:15 be involved in God's work
- Exodus 35:2 God intended that we work
- Acts 1:8 5:14,16 You are the light of the world

"The religion you profess makes it as much your duty to employ your time wisely during the six working days, as to attend church on Sabbath." Counsels on Stewardship, p. 253.

God also greatly blesses those who give to God a portion of their time each day in worship.

DISCUSSION:

- Psalm 5:3
- Psalm 55:17
- Daniel 6:10
- Psalm 92:1,2

Show how time given in daily worship to God makes it easier for us to implement God's command to His people as found in Deuteronomy 6:1-7. Think carefully about Deuteronomy 4:39,40.

To acknowledge these claims of God on our time, demonstrates our love for Him, and our earnest desire to receive His ultimate Gift:

"The gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Romans 6:23.

3. STEWARDSHIP OF POSSESSIONS

Bible Emphasis on Stewardship of Possessions

Every human being on earth has a stewardship responsibility to God. His responsibility does not depend upon whether a person is rich or poor. Nor does it make any difference whether a person is Muslim, Christian, Jew, or atheist. Man has a responsibility to God on the single basis that God gave him life.

True Christian stewardship involves the wise and unselfish use of life.

From his very beginning, God intended that mankind should have responsibility and be entrusted with possessions.

DISCUSSION

- When God made Adam a steward of His creation, He did reserve a portion of Himself (Genesis 2:16, 17). Why?
- Consider Genesis 2:16,17; Genesis 3:1-8.
- "This tree God reserved as a constant reminder of His ownership of all things. Thus He gave them opportunity to demonstrate their faith and trust in Him by their perfect obedience to His requirements." 6T 386

God's desire today is that His people shall be prosperous.

 Consider 3 John 2, Joshua 1:8, Psalm 122:7, Malachi 3:10.

Does God make any reservations in the things we possess today?

- Leviticus 27:30,32. Tithe holy unto the Lord.
- Deuteronomy 14:22. Tithe of increase.
- Malachi 3:8-10. To withhold God's portion is to rob Him.

God also honours the gifts of His people.

Deuteronomy 16:17. Give as able.

Proverbs 3:9. Honour God with substance.

Matthew 10:8. Freely give.

2 Corinthians 9:7. God loves a cheerful giver.

By returning God's portion (tithe), and giving our gifts to God, we too demonstrate our obedience, loyalty and love.

• Consider Leviticus 14:22,23. "So it is with God's claims upon us. He places His treasures in the hands of men, but requires that one tenth shall be faithfully laid aside for His work. He requires this portion to be placed in His treasury. It is to be given to Him as His owner. It is sacred. By faithfully obeying this requirement, we acknowledge that all belongs to God." 67 386.

Consider the difference between "tithes" and "offerings".

- Leviticus 27:30. Tithe belongs to God. It is not a gift. It is simply returned to God.
- An offering is a gift offered willingly of that which God allows you to call your own, after the portion which He owns is returned to Him. See Malachi 3:8.

Giving demonstrates a right relationship with God regarding possessions.

Deuteronomy 8:18, Matthew 6:21.

This relationship attracts God's blessing.

2 Chronicles 31:10, Malachi 3:10, Proverbs 10:22.

FLOW CHART OF DENOMINATIONAL ORGANISATION

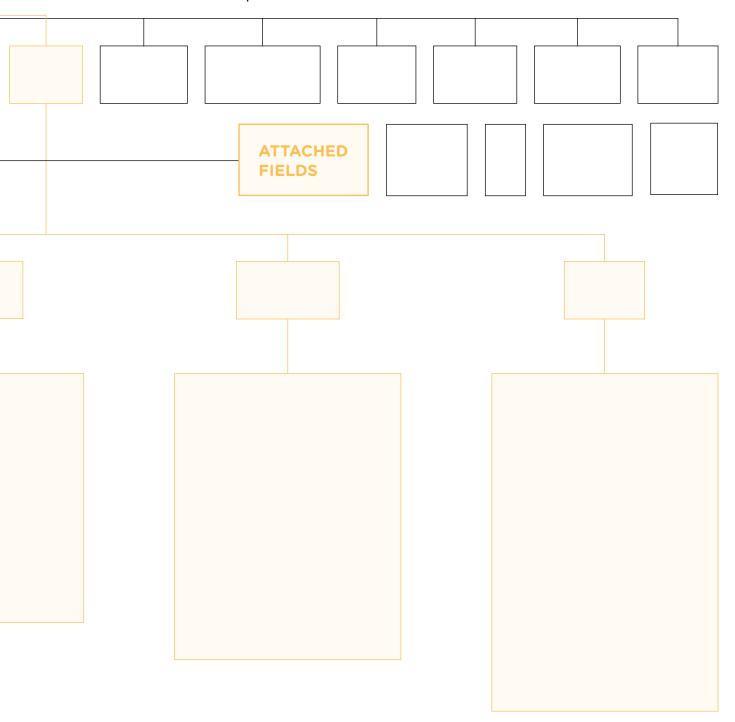

The General Conference (GC) is overseen by an administrative team and governing body, all of which are elected at General Conference Sessions which occur every five years. The GC coordinates the work the denomination does collectively on a global scale, interfacing with division leaders who coordinate activities in their parts of the world.

The world headquarters of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, located in Silver Spring, Maryland, United States, houses a number of departments and services that support the global denomination and its needs. All of these entities exist to uphold the Adventist promise to help others understand the Bible and find freedom, healing and hope in Jesus.

To facilitate its worldwide activity, the GC established regional offices, known as divisions, who have administrative and supervisory responsibilities for groups of unions and other church units within specific geographic areas of the world.

Important Information

Throughout the SPD we have a wide diversity of countries and local legal requirements. Local requirements are changing regularly.

There is a world-wide trend for only accredited organisations or persons to train people in First Aid using government-approved courses. Often there are serious legal consequences if these requirements are not met.

Everyone must check and comply with the legal requirements of their area / country.

PASS A TEST IN GUIDE FIRST-AID

Refer to your local Youth Departments.

Guide First Aid

HEART ATTACK:

Occurs because of the failure of the blood supply to the heart. If patient collapses follow the DRS ABC procedure. Get medical aid.

ANGINA

Is recognised by pain in the heart area. The pain travels up the arm and into the neck area and is aggravated by exertion. Loosen the clothing and place the patient in the half sitting position. Check to see if the patient has any tablets to take. Get medical aid.

CORONARY OCCLUSION

Vice-like pain behind breastbone resembling acute indigestion. Similar signs to Angina with dilation of pupils. The patient is very distressed and pulse may be absent. If in shock, with weak rapid pulse, treat in recovery position. Get medical air.

CONGESTIVE CARDIAC FAILURE

Cause by insufficient oxygen in blood. Patient may cough up blood, become giddy, neck veins swell, cyanosis may occur. Sit the casualty in half sitting position, loosen clothing, wipe away secretions, and seek medical aid.

Do not waste time calling the local doctor if it is possible to transport the casualty to hospital by ambulance. Specialised and intensive care given early in heart conditions, saves lives.
